Three Lives Etui by Elizabeth Ann Talledo of Dames of the Needle/Finger Work,
September 10, 11 and 12, 2010.

Your registration includes a reception at the shop on Friday evening, September 10, 2010, we will have food and refreshments. Your registration fee also includes a dinner on Saturday night at 5p at Rancho San Rafael and a light breakfast on Sunday morning at 8a. This will also include a complete kit with all materials, scissors and ruler. The price is $350.00. A workshop deposit of $300.00 to hold your registration and additional $50.00 must be received before the prestitching kit will be sent to you. The prestitching kits will be mailed the end of July. The project finishing materials will be given out in class. Space will be limited.

This is a two day finishing class with pre-stitching. Students will pre-stitch the three panels with Cross Stitch over one and two, French Knots, Tent Stitch over one, Couching, Eyelet Stitch, Long Arm Cross and Alycia Lace. In class students will construct the 8" x6" three sided Etui. Students will create the ruler and scissor sheaths and cover the matte board with silk lining fabric and linen. They will Rouche the ribbon to the sheaths and hand sew the pieces together.

The first day September 11, 2010 from 1p-5p with Liz - students will cut and adhere interfacing to the lining fabric. They will also start constructing the ruler and scissor cases and apply the Rouched silk ribbon.

The second day September 12, 2010 from 9a-1p with Liz -the students will use double sided tape to attach the silk lining fabric and linen to the matte board panels. They will then hand sew the pieces together to construct the etui.
